"MALE MINIMUM WAGE ACT."

ORDER FIXING A MINIMUM WAGE FOR LICENTIATES OF PHARMACY.

PURSUANT to the provisions of the "Male Minimum Wage Act," chapter 43 of the Statutes of British Columbia, 1929, the Male Minimum Wage Board constituted under that Act, having made due inquiry into the circumstances surrounding the employment of employees in the occupation hereinafter mentioned, hereby orders:—

1. In this Order the expression "licentiate of pharmacy" means a person who is the holder of a certificate as a licentiate of pharmacy issued to him under the provisions of the "Pharmacy Act."

2. This Order shall apply to every employee within the meaning of the "Male Minimum Wage Act" who is engaged in the occupation of a licentiate of pharmacy in the selling, dispensing, or compounding of poisons, drugs, medicines, or chemicals, or in the dispensing of prescriptions of medical practitioners, whether in a drug-store, dispensary, pharmacy, laboratory, office, or elsewhere, and whether by retail or wholesale.

3. Subject to the provisions of section 6 of the "Male Minimum Wage Act," the minimum wage to be paid to every employee to whom this Order applies shall be eighty cents an hour.

Dated at Victoria, B.C., this 31st day of July, 1930.

WATER NOTICE.

STORAGE.

TAKE NOTICE that Vernon Irrigation District, whose address is Box 417, Vernon, B.C., will apply for a licence for the storage of 3,000 acre-feet per annum of water out of Jones Creek, which flows north-easterly and drains into Bessette Creek, about D.L. 164, near Lumby, B.C.

The storage-dam will be located at the natural outlet of Haddo Lake at or near the eastern boundary of Lot 3653.

The capacity of the reservoir to be created is about 3,000 acre-feet and it will flood about 180 acres of land. The water will be diverted from the stream at a point at Intake "F," W.R. Map 8530, and will be used for irrigation purpose upon such of the lands described as comprising the Vernon Irrigation District as are capable of irrigation therefrom.

The licence applied for is to supplement a right to take and use water as per Conditional Licence 5545.

This notice was posted on the ground on the 2nd day of July, 1930.

A copy of this notice and an application pursuant thereto and to the "Water Act" will be filed in the office of the Water Recorder at Vernon, B.C.

Objections to the application may be filed with the said Water Recorder or with the Comptroller of Water Rights, Parliament Buildings, Victoria, B.C., within thirty days after the first appearance of this notice in a local newspaper.

The description of the territory within which the applicant's powers in respect of the undertaking are to be exercised is as follows: The tract of land situated in the Osoyoos Division of Yale District as described in the Letters Patent of and constituting the Vernon Irrigation District, December 9th, 1920.

The petition for the approval of the undertaking will be heard at the office of the Board at a date to be fixed, and any interested person may file an objection thereto in the office of the Comptroller or of the Water Recorder of the district.

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM STANDING ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

100. (1.) All applications to the Legislative Assembly for Private Bills of any nature whatsoever shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant.

(2.) Such notice shall be published in the British Columbia Gazette and once a week in one leading daily newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. The notice in such newspaper to appear on Wednesday of each week.

(3.) When the proposed Bill is of such a nature that it may particularly affect one or more electoral districts, the notice shall furthermore be published once a week if possible in some newspaper in every electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper published in the electoral district nearest thereto.

(4.) The publication of such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of four weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

97. No petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no motion for the suspension or modification of this Standing Order shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid, the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required in respect of such Bill by this rule, unless the House shall order to the contrary.

98. (1.) Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session:—

- (a.) A printed copy of such Bill;
- (b.) A copy of the petition to be presented to the House;
- (c.) Copies of the notices published, with publication proved by a statutory declaration or affidavit to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House.

(2.) At the time of depositing the Bill and petition the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars.

(3.) If a copy of the Bill, petition, and notices proved as aforesaid shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session, or if the petition has not been presented to the House within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees shall be returned.

101. Every petition signed by an agent or attorney in fact shall be accompanied by the authority of such agent or attorney in fact, and the petition shall not be deemed to be filed with the Clerk until this is done.

102. Before any petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a toll-bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Standing Order 100, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts or vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

103. (1.) All Private Bills for Acts of incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference to the clauses of the general Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills: Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the general Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Standing Order shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

(2.) Every Bill for an Act of incorporation, where a form of model Bill has been adopted, shall be drawn in accordance with the model Bill (copies of model Bills may be obtained from the Clerk of the House). Any provisions contained in any such Bill which are not in accord with the model Bill shall be inserted between brackets or underlined, and shall be so printed.

(3.) Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for same.

107. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in small-pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring $10\frac{1}{4}$ inches by $7\frac{1}{2}$ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

In the case of Bills to Incorporate Companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 98, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

All cheques in payment of fees must be certified.
Dated May 1st, 1930.

473-my1 W. H. LANGLEY,
Clerk, Legislative Assembly.

SCIENTIFIC PERMITS.

12. Migratory game, migratory insectivorous, or migratory non-game birds or parts thereof, or their eggs or nests, may be taken, bought, sold, shipped, transported, or possessed for scientific purposes, and said birds may be captured for banding purposes, but only on the issue of a permit by the Minister or by any person duly authorized by him.

Such permits may, upon application, be granted to recognized museums, scientific societies, and to any person furnishing written testimonials from two well-known ornithologists.

The return of specimens taken under such permits shall be made to the Minister upon the expiration of the permit.

PROPAGATION OF MIGRATORY BIRDS.

13. (a.) Migratory game, migratory insectivorous, or migratory non-game birds, or their eggs, protected under Regulations made pursuant to the "Migratory Birds Convention Act," may be taken at any time and in any manner for propagating purposes only on the issue of a permit by the Minister or by any person duly authorized by him. Migratory game, migratory insectivorous, or migratory non-game birds or their eggs so taken may be possessed by the permittee and may be sold and transported by him to any person holding a permit for propagating purposes issued by the Minister or by any person duly authorized by him.

(b.) A person authorized by a permit issued for propagating purposes under this Regulation may possess, buy, sell, or transport migratory game, migratory insectivorous, or migratory non-game birds, or their increase or eggs, for propagating purposes. Such migratory game, migratory insectivorous, or migratory non-game birds, except the birds taken under paragraph (a) of this Regulation, may be killed by him in any manner except by shooting. The unplucked carcasses, or the plucked carcasses with heads attached thereto, of such birds may be sold and transported by the permittee to any person for consumption, or to the keeper of a hotel, restaurant, or boarding-house, or to a dealer in meat or game, or to a club for sale or service to their patrons, all of whom may possess such carcasses for actual consumption without a permit.

(c.) A person granted a permit under this Regulation shall keep books and records which shall correctly set forth at all times the total number of each species of migratory game, migratory insectivorous, or migratory non-game birds or their eggs taken or in his possession. A written report shall be furnished the Minister during the month of January next following the issuance of the permit. This report shall state the total number of each species reared and killed, the number of each species or their eggs sold and transported, the manner in which such species or eggs were transported, the name and address of each person from or to whom such species or eggs were purchased or sold, together with number and species and whether sold alive or dead; and the date of such transaction.

(d.) Applications for permits to take such birds for propagating purposes shall be accompanied by a statement showing:—

- (1.) The full name and post-office address of the applicant;
- (2.) The species of birds or eggs that it is desired to take;
- (3.) The number;
- (4.) The place at which the birds or eggs are to be taken.

Applications for permits to possess, buy, sell, or transport such birds for propagating purposes shall be accompanied by a statement showing:—

- (1.) The full name and post-office address of the applicant;
- (2.) The species and number of birds that it is desired to possess;
- (3.) The area and location of the land to be used in the business and whether owned or leased by the applicant.

(e.) The Minister may require an applicant to furnish a bond in support of his application for a permit for propagating purposes.

(f.) A permittee shall at all reasonable hours allow any game officer to enter and inspect the premises where operations are being carried on under these Regulations, and to inspect the books and records of such permittee relating thereto.

(g.) No person holding a permit for propagating purposes shall sell migratory game, migratory insectivorous, or migratory non-game birds, raised and killed in captivity, unless the same shall bear a metal tag. This tag shall be of a type approved by the Minister and shall contain the seal number allotted to the holder of the permit. It shall not be removed from the carcass.

COLLECTING OF EIDERDOWN.

14. The Minister, or any person duly authorized by him, may issue permits allowing persons owning or leasing eider-duck breeding areas to collect, possess, transport, and sell eiderdown.

TERMINATION OF PERMITS.

15. All permits and licences shall terminate at the end of the calendar year in which they shall have been issued. They shall not be transferable and shall be revocable at the discretion of the Minister.

TAXIDERMISTS.

16. No person shall engage in the business of a taxidermist without having first secured from the Minister a licence so to do. The fee for this licence shall be one dollar.

No taxidermist shall receive, prepare for exhibition purpose, or possess any migratory game, migratory insectivorous, or migratory non-game bird, or any portion thereof, unless such bird has been legally killed, either in the open season for such birds or by the holder of a permit for taking birds for scientific purposes.

Every licensed taxidermist shall annually make such returns as the Minister may require.

Every licensed taxidermist shall keep books and records which correctly set forth the name of each migratory game, migratory insectivorous, or migratory non-game bird received, the date and locality of capture, the date received, and the name and address of the owner of such bird. These books and records are to be open to inspection by any game officer at any reasonable time.

SHIPMENT OF MIGRATORY BIRDS.

17. Any package in which migratory game, migratory insectivorous, or migratory non-game birds or parts thereof, or their eggs or nests, are shipped or transported shall be clearly marked on the outside with the name and address of the shipper and an accurate statement of the contents; and in the case of shipment or transportation of such migratory game, migratory insectivorous, or migratory non-game birds or parts thereof, or their eggs or nests, for scientific or propagating purposes, any package shall be clearly marked on the outside with the number of the permit, the name and address of the shipper, and an accurate statement of the contents.

No transportation company shall accept for transportation any package containing migratory game, migratory insectivorous, or migratory non-game birds, or their nests or eggs or parts thereof, unless such packages shall be marked as hereinbefore required; and shipment of the same through the mails is prohibited, unless marked as aforesaid.

18. The shipment or export of migratory game, migratory insectivorous, or migratory non-game birds, or their nests or eggs, from any Province during the close season in such Province is prohibited, except for scientific or propagating purposes; and traffic between Canada and the United States in any such birds, or their eggs, captured, killed, taken, or shipped at any time contrary to the laws of the Province or State in which the same are captured, killed, taken, or shipped, is likewise prohibited.

19. No person shall ship or offer for shipment from Canada to the United States any package containing migratory game, migratory insectivorous, or migratory non-game birds, or any parts thereof or their eggs, unless such package shall have the name and address of the shipper and an accurate statement of the contents clearly marked on the outside of such package.

No transportation company shall accept for transportation to the United States any packages of migratory game, migratory insectivorous, or migratory non-game birds, or any parts thereof or their eggs, unless such packages bear the name and address of the shipper and an accurate statement of the contents; and shipment of the same through the mails is prohibited, unless marked as aforesaid.

PROVISIONS RESPECTING DAMAGE BY BIRDS.

20. If any of the migratory game, migratory insectivorous, or migratory non-game birds should under extraordinary conditions become seriously injurious to agricultural, fishing, or other interests in any particular locality, the Minister, or any person duly authorized by him, may issue permits to kill such birds so long as they shall continue to be injurious. Applications for such permits shall include a full statement describing:—

- (1.) The species and an estimate of the numbers of birds committing the damage;
- (2.) The nature and extent of the damage;
- (3.) The extent of the agricultural or other interests threatened or involved.

Such permits shall be revocable at the discretion of the Minister. On the expiration of the permit the person to whom it is issued shall furnish to the Minister a written report showing the number of birds killed, the dates upon which they were killed, and the disposition made of the dead birds.

No birds killed under such permits shall be shipped, sold, or offered for sale.

SPECIAL REGULATIONS CONCERNING BIRDS CAUSING DAMAGE.

21. (a.) Any British subject domiciled in the Province of Quebec may capture by trapping or kill by shooting American and red-breasted mergansers within the Counties of Rimouski, Metane, Mata-pedia, Bonaventure, and Gaspé, Province of Quebec, on the south shore of the River St. Lawrence, and within the County of Saguenay, Province of Quebec, on the north shore of the Gulf and River St. Lawrence, from one hour before sunrise to one hour after sunset, from April 1st to August 31st, both dates inclusive: Provided that the birds so killed shall not be sold or offered for sale, or shipped or transported from one person to another, except that they may be shipped or transported as a gift to persons authorized by permits granted by virtue of clause 12 of these Regulations to take or possess such birds for scientific purposes.

(b.) Any Superintendent of Fish Hatcheries situated in the Province of Quebec, any salaried Provincial or Federal Game Officer duly appointed for that Province, or any owner or any lessee of fishing areas in that Province, the bona-fide employees of such owners or lessees, and the members of fishing clubs which lease fishing rights, may kill loons by shooting, within the Province of Quebec, from one hour before sunrise to one hour after sunset, from April 1st to October 31st, both dates inclusive: Provided that the birds so killed shall not be sold or offered for sale, or shipped or transported from one person to another, except that they may be shipped or transported as a gift to persons authorized by permits granted by virtue of clause 12 of these Regulations to take or possess such birds for scientific purposes.

(c.) Any British subject domiciled in the County of Saguenay, Province of Quebec, may kill great black-backed gulls by shooting within the County of Saguenay, Province of Quebec, from one hour before sunrise to one hour after sunset, from June 15th to October 31st, both dates inclusive: Provided that the birds so killed shall not be sold or offered for sale, or shipped or transported from one person to another, except that they may be shipped or transported as a gift to persons authorized by permits granted by virtue of clause 12 of these Regulations to take or possess such birds for scientific purposes.

(d.) The Minister may on any date between August 15th and September 14th, inclusive, issue a general permit, covering any one or more of the Provinces of Manitoba, Alberta, and Saskatchewan, which shall allow any owner or occupier of land in the Province named, having a cereal crop growing or in stook on his said land, to shoot on such land wild ducks which are found causing serious injury to such crop: Provided that wild ducks so killed shall not be sold or offered for sale, and that wild ducks shall not be shot at or killed outside of the area on which the crop is being so seriously injured:

Provided, further, that if the occupant or owner of the land finds it impossible to protect his crops thus himself, he may grant authority, in writing, to not more than one person to shoot thus wild ducks found to be doing serious damage to any cereal crops either growing or in stook, and he shall immediately notify the Game Commissioner of the Province in question of any such authorization, giving the name and address of the person so authorized and a description of the land on which the ducks are doing damage.

INTRODUCTION OF FOREIGN SPECIES.

22. No person or organization shall introduce for the purpose of sport or acclimatization any species of migratory birds without the consent of the Minister in writing.

DEFACING OF POSTERS.

23. No person shall destroy, deface, tear down, or damage maliciously, any posters, notice-boards, or signs erected to acquaint the public with any provisions of the "Migratory Birds Convention Act" or Regulations thereunder.

(25.) To operate sand, gravel, and rock quarries:

(26.) To act as a holding corporation, and through share holdings or otherwise to manage, control, and operate corporations of every kind and nature whatsoever and wheresoever situate:

(27.) To promote, form, organize, and register and to aid or assist in the promotion of any other company or companies, with power to assist such company or companies by paying or contributing towards the preliminary expenses or providing for the whole or part of the capital thereof, or by subscribing for shares therein or lending money thereto upon any form of security; to remunerate in cash or shares or otherwise the promoters or any person assisting in the promotion of this Company or of any company promoted by this Company; to pay out of the funds of the Company all or any of the expenses of or incidental to the promotion, organization, registration, or establishment of this or any other company, and to the issue and subscription of the shares of any other company, and to the issue and subscription of the shares or capital, including brokerage for placing or guaranteeing the placing of the securities, of this or any other company:

(28.) To borrow or raise money, and for the purpose of securing or discharging any such money or any other debt or any contract or indemnity or other obligation or liability of or binding upon the Company, to mortgage and charge the undertaking and all or any of the real and personal property and assets of the Company, present or future, including its uncalled capital; and to create and issue, at par or at a premium or discount, bonds, debentures, mortgages, debenture stock, and other securities, payable to bearer or otherwise, and either permanent or redeemable or repayable, and to secure any obligation or security of the Company by means of trust deeds or otherwise, and to confer upon any encumbrancer such powers of making and enforcing calls and of exchanging any debentures or debenture stock for shares in the capital of the Company and otherwise as may be thought fit:

(29.) To buy, sell, and deal in shares and securities of any corporation whatsoever:

(30.) To apply from time to time for such legislative powers in the Dominion of Canada or elsewhere as will facilitate the carrying into effect the objects of the Company or any of them:

(31.) To purchase, discount, acquire, deal in, sell, dispose of, and otherwise turn to account bills of lading, warehouse receipts, bills of exchange, documents of title, agreements for sale or mortgages of real or personal property or any interest therein:

(32.) To carry on any other business which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with the Company, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights:

(33.) Upon sale or other disposition of all or any of the assets of the Company, to reinvest the capital arising therefrom in any property or rights which the Company is authorized to acquire:

(34.) The objects set forth in any subclause of this clause shall not, except where the context expressly so requires, be in anywise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other subclause or by the name of the Company. None of such subclauses or the objects therein specified or the powers thereby conferred shall be deemed subsidiary or auxiliary merely to the objects mentioned in the first subclause of this clause, but the Company shall have full power to exercise all or any of the powers conferred by any part of this clause in any part of the world, and notwithstanding that the business, undertaking, property, or acts proposed to be transacted, acquired, dealt with, or performed do not fall within the objects of the first subclause of this clause.

NOTICE is hereby given that "Clahwhit Sulphite Fibre Company, Limited," was incorporated under the "Companies Act" on the 10th day of July, 1930.

The Company is authorized to issue two hundred thousand shares without nominal or par value.

The address of its registered office is 409 Bank of Nova Scotia Building, 602 Hastings Street West, Vancouver, B.C.

The objects for which the Company is established are:—

(a.) To exercise any of the powers which a "power company" is authorized to exercise under section 138 of the "Water Act," chapter 271, "Revised Statutes of British Columbia, 1924," or any amendment thereto, and to exercise any powers which may be granted to the Company under the said "Water Act" or any amendment or by any Act which may be substituted for the said "Water Act":

(b.) To carry on the business of pulp and paper manufacturers, sulphite-manufacturers, manufacturers of kraft pulp, rayon pulp, and fibre silk, or any products now or hereafter capable of being manufactured from wood or raw cellulose, and to acquire any rights or franchises, timber licences, grants, timber or other rights or powers which may be granted respecting the manufacture of pulp, paper, lumber, or other wood products under the provisions of the "Forest Act" or any other Act whatsoever:

(c.) To carry on the business of loggers, logging operators, lumbermen, timber and lumber merchants, sawmill owners and operators, log and lumber merchants, and generally to manufacture lumber and all by-products of lumber, and to buy and sell logs and lumber or any products thereof as the Company may see fit:

(d.) To carry on the business of ship-owners, ship-builders, and to build, construct, purchase, charter, or otherwise acquire and operate vessels, steamboats, fishing-boats, tugs, tenders, scows, barges, crafts, and boats of every description or any interest therein, and to let out, lease, hire, mortgage, charter, sell, or otherwise dispose of the same or any interest therein:

(e.) To acquire land and to subdivide, develop, lease, sell, and improve the same, and to build thereon pulp and paper mills, factories, industrial buildings, houses, ways, and works either upon, above, or under the same, including the building and operating of stores, hotels, boarding or rooming houses, or any other buildings or businesses, and to subdivide, operate, and maintain townsites, villages, cities, or other subdivisions:

(f.) To make and sell electrical power and energy, and to transmit the same by any wireless process now or hereafter used, and for that purpose to erect any sending or receiving station, and to manufacture aerial or other appliances for receiving or transmitting electrical energy, sounds, television, or any other works, ways, means, invention, appliances, devices, or things by means of which electrical energy may be used or transmitted:

(g.) To apply for and obtain, under the provisions of the "Water Act," or to purchase or otherwise acquire water records or water licences or other concessions or powers:

(h.) The construction or operation of works or the supply or utilization of water under the "Water Act":

(i.) To supply water for domestic purposes, as defined by the "Water Act," to persons, companies, incorporated and unincorporated localities:

(j.) For rendering water and water-power available for use, application, and distribution by erecting dams, increasing the head of water in any existing body of water or extending the area thereof, diverting the waters of any stream, pond, or lake into any other channel or channels, laying or erecting any line of flume, pipe, or wire, constructing any raceway, reservoir, aqueduct, weir, wheel, building, or other erection or work which may be required in connection with the improvement and use of the said water and water-power, or by altering, renewing, extending, improving, repairing, or maintaining any such works or any part thereof:

(k.) The use of water or water-power for hydraulic mining purposes, and for milling, manufacturing, industrial, and mechanical purposes, other than the generation of electricity:

(l.) To produce for the Company's use and for supplying consumers with electricity, compressed air, or any other form of developed power, whether now known or afterwards discovered:

(m.) To manufacture and supply gas to consumers, and for such purpose to build, maintain, and operate all necessary buildings, machinery, and plant:

(n.) To construct, operate, and maintain telegraph and telephone systems and lines:

(o.) Subject to the provisions of the "Railway Act" and any other law of British Columbia or of Canada, to construct, maintain, and operate single or double track and turnouts for the passage of cars, carriages, and all kinds of vehicles, capable of being used upon or in connection with tramway, upon, along, across, under, or above any lands, highways, roads, streets, bridges which are in the line of the tramway intended to be built by the Company, and to erect, maintain, and repair poles and wires in the line of the tramway intended to be built, and to take, transfer, and carry passengers, merchandise, and goods of all kinds on the tramway by any motive power now used or that may be afterwards discovered:

(p.) Subject to any law of the Province of British Columbia or of the Dominion of Canada relating thereto, to fix rates and charges for the use of light, heat, and power and the carriage of goods and passengers:

(q.) To procure the Company to be registered or licensed for the transaction of business in any Province of the Dominion of Canada, Great Britain and any part of the British Empire, or any foreign country or place.

NOTICE is hereby given that "Balco Estates, Limited," was incorporated under the "Companies Act" on the 9th day of July, 1930.

The authorized capital of the Company is ten thousand dollars, divided into ten thousand shares.

The address of its registered office is 808 Stock Exchange Building, 475 Howe Street, Vancouver, B.C.

The objects for which the Company is established are:—

(a.) To acquire and take over any and all kinds of real estate, leases, and other interest in lands in the City of Vancouver and elsewhere in the Province of British Columbia, assuming all charges and liabilities which may exist against the said real estate, leases, or other interest in lands, and to pay the vendor, lessor, assignor, or other persons interested, for the same in cash or in shares of the Company, or partly in cash and partly in shares of the said Company:

(b.) To acquire tracts of land with the object of subdividing the same into lots and selling such lots when so subdivided:

(c.) Subject to paragraph (o) hereof, to carry on business as capitalists, financiers, concessionaires, and merchants, and to undertake and execute all kinds of financial and commercial trading and other operations, and to carry on any other business (except that of assurance) which may seem to be capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with any of these objects, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of, or facilitate the realization of, or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights:

(d.) To purchase either outright or by agreement for sale, take on lease or in exchange, or otherwise acquire any lands, leases, buildings, timber, mines, water rights, rights, or concessions in the Province of British Columbia or elsewhere, and any estate or interest therein and any rights connected therewith:

(e.) Subject to paragraph (o) hereof, to develop and turn to account any land or other property acquired by or in which the Company is interested, and in particular by laying out and preparing the same for building purposes, pulling down, constructing, altering, decorating, maintaining, furnishing, fitting up, and improving buildings, and by planting, paving, draining, farming, cultivating, letting on building lease or building agreement, and by advancing money to and entering into contracts and arrangements of all kinds with builders, tenants, and others:

(f.) Subject to paragraph (o) hereof, to lend money with or without security and generally to such persons and upon such terms and conditions as the Company may think fit, and in particular to persons undertaking to improve any of the Company's property or assets:

(g.) To borrow or raise or secure payment of money in such manner as the Company shall think fit, and in particular by mortgages and by the issue of debentures or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, charged upon all or any of the Company's property, both present and future, including its uncalled capital, and to purchase, redeem, or pay off any such securities:

(h.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concession, or otherwise with any person or company carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company:

(i.) To invest and deal with the money of the Company not immediately required in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(j.) To remunerate any person or corporation for services rendered or to be rendered in placing or assisting to place, or guaranteeing the placing of, any shares in the Company's capital or any debentures, debenture stock, or other securities of the Company, or in or about the formation or promotion of the Company or the conduct of its business:

(k.) To sell and dispose of the whole or any part of the undertaking of the Company for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, and to promote any other company for any purpose which may seem, either directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit this Company:

(l.) Upon the sale of the whole or any part of the undertaking of the Company, to divide the proceeds thereof among the shareholders in specie:

(m.) To carry on business and do any of the things set out herein in any Province or any part of the Dominion of Canada or in any foreign country, and to procure the Company to be registered or recognized in any Province or part of the Dominion of Canada and in any foreign country or place:

(n.) To do all or any of the above things in any part of the world, and as principals, agents, contractors, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others:

(o.) Provided that nothing in the foregoing objects contained shall authorize the Company to exercise any of the powers of a trust company as defined by the "Trust Companies Act."

And it is hereby declared that the word "company" in this clause shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body of persons, whether incorporated or not incorporated, and whether domiciled in the Dominion of Canada or elsewhere; and the intention is that the objects specified in every paragraph of this clause shall, except where otherwise expressed in such paragraph, be independent main objects, and shall be in nowise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph or the name of the Company, and none of such paragraphs nor the objects therein specified or ancillary merely to the objects mentioned in the first paragraph of this clause, but the Company shall have full power to exercise all or any of the powers conferred by any part of this clause, and notwithstanding that the business, undertaking, property, or acts proposed to be transacted, acquired, dealt with, or performed do not fall within the objects of the first paragraph of this clause.

(1.) To carry on the business of timber merchants, sawmill-owners, loggers, lumbermen, and lumber merchants in any or all their branches; to buy, sell, log, prepare for market, manufacture, manipulate, import, export, and deal in timber, sawlogs, lumber, and wood of all kinds, and to manufacture and deal in lumber, timber, shingles, lath, sash, doors, portable houses, boxes, and all articles and materials in the manufacture whereof timber, lumber, or wood is used:

(2.) To purchase, lease, or otherwise acquire sawmills, shingle-mills, pulp-mills, paper-mills, and mills of any other description for the manufacture of lumber, shingles, pulp, paper, and other timber products:

(3.) To acquire all necessary machinery and equipment for such manufacture of lumber, shingles, pulp, paper, and other timber products:

(4.) To carry on the business of merchants, carriers by land or water, ship-owners, wharfingers, warehousemen, scow-owners, barge-owners, lighter-men, and forwarding agents, and to buy, sell, repair, build, charter, hire, and operate steamers, tugs, barges, ships, and other vessels, and to employ the same in the conveyance of passengers, mails, merchandise, and freight of all kinds:

(5.) To purchase, lease, take by licence, or otherwise acquire, sell, deal with, use, and dispose of any lands, timber licences or limits, grants, concessions, leases, mill-sites, and any real or personal properties of every description, and to work, develop the resources of, and turn to account the same in such manner as the Company may think fit:

(6.) Generally to purchase, take on lease, hire, or otherwise acquire, hold, maintain, and operate any real and personal property, wheresoever situated, and any rights and privileges which the Company may think necessary or convenient for the purposes of its business, and to sell or otherwise dispose of and turn to account all or any part of the same:

(7.) To construct, maintain, and alter any buildings or works necessary or convenient for the purposes of the Company:

(8.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required upon such securities and in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(9.) To acquire and carry on all or any part of the business or property and to undertake any liabilities of any person, firm, association, or company possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company, or carrying on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or which can be conveniently carried on in connection with the same, or may seem to the Company calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company, and to pay for any lands, business, property, rights, privileges, and concessions acquired or agreed to be acquired by the Company, and generally to satisfy any payment by or obligations of the Company, by the issue of shares of this Company or any other company credited as fully or partly paid up, or of

debentures or other securities of this or any other company credited as fully or partly paid up:

(10.) To undertake and carry into effect all such financial, trading, or other operations or business in connection with the objects of the Company as the Company may think fit:

(11.) To subscribe for, take, acquire, hold, and sell stocks, shares, debentures, obligations, and securities of any company or any supreme, municipal, public, or local board or authority:

(12.) To sell, lease, exchange, surrender, mortgage, or otherwise deal with the whole of the undertaking and property and rights of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for any shares (whether credited as partly or fully paid up or otherwise), debentures, or securities of any other company, and to divide such part or parts, as may be determined by the Company, of the purchase-moneys, whether in cash, shares, or other equivalent, which may at any time be received by the Company on a sale of or other dealing with the whole or part of the property, estate, and rights of the Company, amongst the members of the Company by way of dividend or bonus in proportion to their shares or to the amount paid up on their shares, or otherwise to deal with the same as the Company may determine:

(13.) To borrow or raise money for any purpose of the Company, and to secure the repayment of money and the interest thereon in such manner and on such terms as the directors may deem expedient, and in particular by the issue of bonds, debentures, or debenture stock charged upon the whole or any part of the undertaking, property, and assets of the Company, present or after acquired, including its uncalled capital:

(14.) To create, issue, make, sell, exchange, hypothecate, or otherwise deal with, draw, accept, endorse, discount, and negotiate perpetual or redeemable bonds, debentures or debenture stock, promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, or other negotiable or non-negotiable obligations:

(15.) To distribute any of the assets of the Company among its members in specie:

(16.) To do all such things as are in the opinion of the directors incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects, and so that the word "company" throughout this clause shall be deemed to include any Government, body, authority, partnership, association, or other body of persons, whether incorporated or not, and whether registered or domiciled in British Columbia or elsewhere.

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM STANDING ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

100. (1.) All applications to the Legislative Assembly for Private Bills of any nature whatsoever shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant.

(2.) Such notice shall be published in the British Columbia Gazette and once a week in one leading daily newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. The notice in such newspaper to appear on Wednesday of each week.

(3.) When the proposed Bill is of such a nature that it may particularly affect one or more electoral districts, the notice shall furthermore be published once a week if possible in some newspaper in every electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper published in the electoral district nearest thereto.

(4.) The publication of such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of four weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

97. No petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no motion for the suspension or modification of this Standing Order shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid, the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required in respect of such Bill by this rule, unless the House shall order to the contrary.

98. (1.) Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session:—

- (a.) A printed copy of such Bill;
- (b.) A copy of the petition to be presented to the House;
- (c.) Copies of the notices published, with publication proved by a statutory declaration or affidavit to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House.

(2.) At the time of depositing the Bill and petition the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars.

(3.) If a copy of the Bill, petition, and notices proved as aforesaid shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session, or if the petition has not been presented to the House within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees shall be returned.

101. Every petition signed by an agent or attorney in fact shall be accompanied by the authority of such agent or attorney in fact, and the petition shall not be deemed to be filed with the Clerk until this is done.

102. Before any petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a toll-bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Standing Order 100, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts or vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

103. (1.) All Private Bills for Acts of incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference to the clauses of the general Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills: Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the general Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Standing Order shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

(2.) Every Bill for an Act of incorporation, where a form of model Bill has been adopted, shall be drawn in accordance with the model Bill (copies of model Bills may be obtained from the Clerk of the House). Any provisions contained in any such Bill which are not in accord with the model Bill shall be inserted between brackets or underlined, and shall be so printed.

(3.) Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for same.

107. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in small-pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring 10¾ inches by 7½ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

In the case of Bills to Incorporate Companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 98, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

All cheques in payment of fees must be certified.

Dated May 1st, 1930.

"COMPANIES ACT."

NOTICE is hereby given that Alaska Juneau Gold Mining Company has appointed Horace McN. Fraser, of Room 27, 413 Granville Street, Vancouver, B.C., as its attorney for the purposes of the "Companies Act," in place of Harold McConnell, of Manville, B.C.

Dated this 29th day of July, 1930.

1021-jy31 H. G. GARRETT,
Registrar of Companies.

CERTIFICATES OF INCORPORATION.

"COMPANIES ACT."

No. 11897.

NOTICE is hereby given that "International Pipe Lines, Limited," was incorporated under the "Companies Act" on the 28th day of July, 1930.

The Company is authorized to issue one million shares without nominal or par value.

The address of its registered office is 808 Stock Exchange Building, 475 Howe Street, Vancouver, B.C.

The objects for which the Company is established are:—

(a.) To acquire by purchase, lease, discovery, location, or otherwise, and hold, mineral leases, mining lands, prospects, natural-gas and petroleum rights, and to work, develop, operate, turn to account, sell, or otherwise dispose thereof:

(b.) To drill or bore for, refine, assay, analyse, and otherwise treat minerals, petroleum, natural gas, or other mineral whatsoever, whether belonging to the Company or not, and to render the same merchantable, and to buy, sell, and deal in the same or any product thereof:

(c.) To acquire by purchase, lease, hire, exchange, or otherwise, and to contract, operate, maintain, or alter, trails, roads, ways, tramways, reservoirs, dams, flumes, watercourses, canals, pipelines, wells, tanks, bridges, wharves, piers, mills, pumping plants, factories, foundries, furnaces, refining-works, electrical and other works and appliances, power devices and plants of every kind, laboratories, warehouses, boarding-houses, dwellings, buildings, machinery, plant, and other works and conveniences, and to buy, sell, manufacture, and deal in all kinds of goods, stores, provisions, implements, chattels, and effects:

(d.) To sell or otherwise dispose of minerals, natural gas, or petroleum, and to take contracts for drilling and boring of all kinds, and to accept as consideration shares, stock, debentures, and other securities of any limited company, wheresoever incorporated, and carry on any business, directly or indirectly, conducive to the objects of a specially limited company:

(e.) To buy natural gas and petroleum from any other company or companies and dispose of same:

(f.) To enter into contracts or agreements or any other arrangement for the disposing of natural gas in municipal companies or other corporations:

(g.) To apply for and hold franchises in cities, towns, or any other municipalities for the sale and disposal of natural gas in the said cities, towns, or other municipalities:

(h.) To manage real and personal property of any and every kind whatsoever, whether belonging to the Company or for other persons or corporations, on commission or for other consideration, and to collect rents and other incomes and rent-charges generally, and to undertake and carry on the business of real-estate agents, financial agents, and insurance agents:

(i.) To lend the money of the Company to such persons and on such terms as may seem expedient, and in particular to builders, customers, and others having dealings with the Company, with power to take security for the repayment of the same or any other indebtedness owing to the Company, and to acquire any property or assets which may be pledged with the Company as security, and to resell the same:

(j.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(k.) To borrow or raise money for any purpose of the Company, and for the purpose of securing the same and interest, or for any other purpose, to mortgage, pledge, or charge the whole or any part of the Company's property or assets, real or personal property, whether present or future, including its uncalled capital; and to create, issue, make, draw, accept, and negotiate perpetual or redeemable bonds, debentures or debenture stock, promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, obligations, and other negotiable and transferable instruments, and grant securities under the "Bank Act":

(l.) To sell, pledge, discount, or mortgage any mortgage, agreement for sale, or other security or any other real or personal property held by the Company from time to time, and to make and execute all requisite conveyances and assurances in respect thereof:

(m.) To acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property, and liabilities of any person, firm, association, or company possessed of property suitable for the purpose of this Company, or carrying on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or which can be conveniently carried on in connection with the same, or may seem to the Company calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company; and as the consideration for same to pay cash or to issue and to allot shares of the Company credited as fully or partly paid up, or stocks or obligations of the Company, or to pay for the same partly in one way and partly in the other:

(n.) To take or otherwise acquire and hold shares and securities in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company:

(o.) To sell or dispose of the undertakings of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(p.) To distribute any of the property of the Company in specie among the members:

(q.) To draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, execute, and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, debentures, and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(r.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concession, or otherwise with any person or company carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction which this Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as to, directly or indirectly, benefit the Company; and to lend money to, guarantee the contracts of, or otherwise assist any such person or company:

(s.) To procure this Company to be registered in any place or country:

(t.) To pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses of and incidental to the formation, incorporation, and registration of this Company or in or about the promotion of the Company or the conduct of its business:

(u.) To do all or any of the above things as principals, agents, contractors, or otherwise, and by or through trustees, agents, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others:

(v.) To do all such things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects.

And it is hereby declared that the word "company" in this clause shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body of persons, whether incorporated or not incorporated, and whether domiciled in the Dominion of Canada or elsewhere; and the intention is that the objects specified in every paragraph of this clause shall, except where otherwise expressed in such paragraph, be independent main objects, and shall be in nowise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph or the name of the Company, and none of such paragraphs, nor the objects therein specified, nor the powers thereby conferred shall be deemed subsidiary or ancillary merely to the objects mentioned in the first paragraph of this clause, but the Company shall have full power to exercise all or any of the powers conferred by any part of this clause, and notwithstanding that the business, undertaking, property, or acts proposed to be transacted, acquired, dealt with, or performed do not fall within the objects of the first paragraph of this clause.

(25.) To operate sand, gravel, and rock quarries:

(26.) To act as a holding corporation, and through share holdings or otherwise to manage, control, and operate corporations of every kind and nature whatsoever and wheresoever situate:

(27.) To promote, form, organize, and register and to aid or assist in the promotion of any other company or companies, with power to assist such company or companies by paying or contributing towards the preliminary expenses or providing for the whole or part of the capital thereof, or by subscribing for shares therein or lending money thereto upon any form of security; to remunerate in cash or shares or otherwise the promoters or any person assisting in the promotion of this Company or of any company promoted by this Company; to pay out of the funds of the Company all or any of the expenses of or incidental to the promotion, organization, registration, or establishment of this or any other company, and to the issue and subscription of the shares of any other company, and to the issue and subscription of the shares or capital, including brokerage for placing or guaranteeing the placing of the securities, of this or any other company:

(28.) To borrow or raise money, and for the purpose of securing or discharging any such money or any other debt or any contract or indemnity or other obligation or liability of or binding upon the Company, to mortgage and charge the undertaking and all or any of the real and personal property and assets of the Company, present or future, including its uncalled capital; and to create and issue, at par or at a premium or discount, bonds, debentures, mortgages, debenture stock, and other securities, payable to bearer or otherwise, and either permanent or redeemable or repayable, and to secure any obligation or security of the Company by means of trust deeds or otherwise, and to confer upon any encumbrancer such powers of making and enforcing calls and of exchanging any debentures or debenture stock for shares in the capital of the Company and otherwise as may be thought fit:

(29.) To buy, sell, and deal in shares and securities of any corporation whatsoever:

(30.) To apply from time to time for such legislative powers in the Dominion of Canada or elsewhere as will facilitate the carrying into effect the objects of the Company or any of them:

(31.) To purchase, discount, acquire, deal in, sell, dispose of, and otherwise turn to account bills of lading, warehouse receipts, bills of exchange, documents of title, agreements for sale or mortgages of real or personal property or any interest therein:

(32.) To carry on any other business which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with the Company, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights:

(33.) Upon sale or other disposition of all or any of the assets of the Company, to reinvest the capital arising therefrom in any property or rights which the Company is authorized to acquire:

(34.) The objects set forth in any subclause of this clause shall not, except where the context expressly so requires, be in anywise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other subclause or by the name of the Company. None of such subclauses or the objects therein specified or the powers thereby conferred shall be deemed subsidiary or auxiliary merely to the objects mentioned in the first subclause of this clause, but the Company shall have full power to exercise all or any of the powers conferred by any part of this clause in any part of the world, and notwithstanding that the business, undertaking, property, or acts proposed to be transacted, acquired, dealt with, or performed do not fall within the objects of the first subclause of this clause.

The address of its registered office is 808 Stock Exchange Building, 475 Howe Street, Vancouver, B.C.

The objects for which the Company is established are:—

(a.) To acquire and take over any and all kinds of real estate, leases, and other interest in lands in the City of Vancouver and elsewhere in the Province of British Columbia, assuming all charges and liabilities which may exist against the said real estate, leases, or other interest in lands, and to pay the vendor, lessor, assignor, or other persons interested, for the same in cash or in shares of the Company, or partly in cash and partly in shares of the said Company:

(b.) To acquire tracts of land with the object of subdividing the same into lots and selling such lots when so subdivided:

(c.) Subject to paragraph (a) hereof, to carry on business as capitalists, financiers, concessionaires, and merchants, and to undertake and execute all kinds of financial and commercial trading and other operations, and to carry on any other business (except that of assurance) which may seem to be capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with any of these objects, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of, or facilitate the realization of, or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights:

(d.) To purchase either outright or by agreement for sale, take on lease or in exchange, or otherwise acquire any lands, leases, buildings, timber, mines, water rights, rights, or concessions in the Province of British Columbia or elsewhere, and any estate or interest therein and any rights connected therewith:

(e.) Subject to paragraph (a) hereof, to develop and turn to account any land or other property acquired by or in which the Company is interested, and in particular by laying out and preparing the same for building purposes, pulling down, constructing, altering, decorating, maintaining, furnishing, fitting up, and improving buildings, and by planting, paving, draining, farming, cultivating, letting on building lease or building agreement, and by advancing money to and entering into contracts and arrangements of all kinds with builders, tenants, and others:

(f.) Subject to paragraph (a) hereof, to lend money with or without security and generally to such persons and upon such terms and conditions as the Company may think fit, and in particular to persons undertaking to improve any of the Company's property or assets:

(g.) To borrow or raise or secure payment of money in such manner as the Company shall think fit, and in particular by mortgages and by the issue of debentures or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, charged upon all or any of the Company's property, both present and future, including its uncalled capital, and to purchase, redeem, or pay off any such securities:

(h.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concession, or otherwise with any person or company carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company:

(i.) To invest and deal with the money of the Company not immediately required in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(j.) To remunerate any person or corporation for services rendered or to be rendered in placing or assisting to place, or guaranteeing the placing of, any shares in the Company's capital or any debentures, debenture stock, or other securities of the Company, or in or about the formation or promotion of the Company or the conduct of its business:

(k.) To sell and dispose of the whole or any part of the undertaking of the Company for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, and to promote any other company for any purpose which may seem, either directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit this Company:

(l.) Upon the sale of the whole or any part of the undertaking of the Company, to divide the proceeds thereof among the shareholders in specie:

(m.) To carry on business and do any of the things set out herein in any Province or any part of the Dominion of Canada or in any foreign country, and to procure the Company to be registered or recognized in any Province or part of the Dominion of Canada and in any foreign country or place:

(n.) To do all or any of the above things in any part of the world, and as principals, agents, contractors, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others:

(o.) Provided that nothing in the foregoing objects contained shall authorize the Company to exercise any of the powers of a trust company as defined by the "Trust Companies Act."

And it is hereby declared that the word "company" in this clause shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body of persons, whether incorporated or not incorporated, and whether domiciled in the Dominion of Canada or elsewhere; and the intention is that the objects specified in every paragraph of this clause shall, except where otherwise expressed in such paragraph, be independent main objects, and shall be in nowise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph or the name of the Company, and none of such paragraphs nor the objects therein specified or ancillary merely to the objects mentioned in the first paragraph of this clause, but the Company shall have full power to exercise all or any of the powers conferred by any part of this clause, and notwithstanding that the business, undertaking, property, or acts proposed to be transacted, acquired, dealt with, or performed do not fall within the objects of the first paragraph of this clause.

(1.) To carry on the business of timber merchants, sawmill-owners, loggers, lumbermen, and lumber merchants in any or all their branches; to buy, sell, log, prepare for market, manufacture, manipulate, import, export, and deal in timber, sawlogs, lumber, and wood of all kinds, and to manufacture and deal in lumber, timber, shingles, lath, sash, doors, portable houses, boxes, and all articles and materials in the manufacture whereof timber, lumber, or wood is used:

(2.) To purchase, lease, or otherwise acquire sawmills, shingle-mills, pulp-mills, paper-mills, and mills of any other description for the manufacture of lumber, shingles, pulp, paper, and other timber products:

(3.) To acquire all necessary machinery and equipment for such manufacture of lumber, shingles, pulp, paper, and other timber products:

(4.) To carry on the business of merchants, carriers by land or water, ship-owners, wharfingers, warehousemen, scow-owners, barge-owners, lightermen, and forwarding agents, and to buy, sell, repair, build, charter, hire, and operate steamers, tugs, barges, ships, and other vessels, and to employ the same in the conveyance of passengers, mails, merchandise, and freight of all kinds:

(5.) To purchase, lease, take by licence, or otherwise acquire, sell, deal with, use, and dispose of any lands, timber licences or limits, grants, concessions, leases, mill-sites, and any real or personal properties of every description, and to work, develop the resources of, and turn to account the same in such manner as the Company may think fit:

(6.) Generally to purchase, take on lease, hire, or otherwise acquire, hold, maintain, and operate any real and personal property, wheresoever situated, and any rights and privileges which the Company may think necessary or convenient for the purposes of its business, and to sell or otherwise dispose of and turn to account all or any part of the same:

(7.) To construct, maintain, and alter any buildings or works necessary or convenient for the purposes of the Company:

(8.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required upon such securities and in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(9.) To acquire and carry on all or any part of the business or property and to undertake any liabilities of any person, firm, association, or company possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company, or carrying on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or which can be conveniently carried on in connection with the same, or may seem to the Company calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company, and to pay for any lands, business, property, rights, privileges, and concessions acquired or agreed to be acquired by the Company, and generally to satisfy any payment by or obligations of the Company, by the issue of shares of this Company or any other company credited as fully or partly paid up, or of

debentures or other securities of this or any other company credited as fully or partly paid up:

(10.) To undertake and carry into effect all such financial, trading, or other operations or business in connection with the objects of the Company as the Company may think fit:

(11.) To subscribe for, take, acquire, hold, and sell stocks, shares, debentures, obligations, and securities of any company or any supreme, municipal, public, or local board or authority:

(12.) To sell, lease, exchange, surrender, mortgage, or otherwise deal with the whole of the undertaking and property and rights of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for any shares (whether credited as partly or fully paid up or otherwise), debentures, or securities of any other company, and to divide such part or parts, as may be determined by the Company, of the purchase-moneys, whether in cash, shares, or other equivalent, which may at any time be received by the Company on a sale of or other dealing with the whole or part of the property, estate, and rights of the Company, amongst the members of the Company by way of dividend or bonus in proportion to their shares or to the amount paid up on their shares, or otherwise to deal with the same as the Company may determine:

(13.) To borrow or raise money for any purpose of the Company, and to secure the repayment of money and the interest thereon in such manner and on such terms as the directors may deem expedient, and in particular by the issue of bonds, debentures, or debenture stock charged upon the whole or any part of the undertaking, property, and assets of the Company, present or after acquired, including its uncalled capital:

(14.) To create, issue, make, sell, exchange, hypothecate, or otherwise deal with, draw, accept, endorse, discount, and negotiate perpetual or redeemable bonds, debentures or debenture stock, promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, or other negotiable or non-negotiable obligations:

(15.) To distribute any of the assets of the Company among its members in specie:

(16.) To do all such things as are in the opinion of the directors incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects, and so that the word "company" throughout this clause shall be deemed to include any Government, body, authority, partnership, association, or other body of persons, whether incorporated or not, and whether registered or domiciled in British Columbia or elsewhere.

The authorized capital of the Company is fifty thousand dollars, divided into five hundred shares.

The address of its registered office is 11, Law Chambers, 531 Bastion Street, Victoria, British Columbia.

The objects for which the Company is established are:—

(1.) To acquire certain lands, buildings, and appurtenances known or recently known as "The Star Construction Holdings," including its site and certain grounds belonging thereto, and all out-building erected in said grounds, and also all the contents, furniture, fixtures, equipment, and other chattels therein or in or on any part thereof:

(2.) To establish and carry on at Sooke Harbour or elsewhere in the said Province a school or college where students may obtain a sound classical, scientific, mathematical, and general education of the highest order, and for such purpose to adapt and use the said lands, buildings and premises, and any other lands and buildings that may be requisite:

(3.) To adopt and carry into effect (either with or without modification) an agreement which has already been prepared and is expressed to be made between Emily Florence Roberts, in said Province of the one part and the Company of the other part, a copy whereof for the purpose of identification has been initialled by the said Emily Florence Roberts, and also by Claude Lionel Harrison, a solicitor of the Supreme Court of British Columbia, which said agreement relates to the engagement of the said Emily Florence Roberts as head mistress of the said school or college:

(4.) Subject to the terms of the said agreement, to employ, appoint, and remove such teachers, instructors, and assistants, and all other officers and servants, male or female, as may be necessary for carrying out any of the Company's objects; to prescribe their several duties and to pay them such salaries or wages as may from time to time be determined:

(5.) To provide courses of instruction in all branches of a liberal education, including music, art, and morals and religion, and to arrange for the delivery and holding of such lectures, exhibitions, public meetings, and classes as shall, directly or indirectly, advance the education or conduce to the welfare of the students attending such school or college:

(6.) To provide for the examination from time to time of any such students by approved examiners or examining bodies; to give certificates to successful candidates, and to present such scholarships, prizes, and pecuniary or other awards as shall facilitate or encourage proficiency in the subjects taught or courses provided, as well as industry and good behavior:

(7.) To make and enforce all such general rules, orders, and regulations as may be necessary or proper to maintain discipline and carry on effectually the work of such institution:

(8.) To promote and carry on a Girls' Guide troop or other organization for partly or otherwise of physical training, and all such summer and winter sports or pastimes as may be suitable, and to arrange competitions, games, and sports of all kinds; to grant or contribute towards prizes, awards, and distinctions in connection therewith, and to do or provide for all acts and things necessary for or incidental to the proper care and management of the same:

(9.) To determine and exact such tuition fees, rates, and charges for board and other services provided as the directors of the Company may think fit to impose:

(10.) To establish, build, lease, or otherwise acquire, and to adapt, alter, improve, equip, furnish, maintain, and manage, residential houses, laboratories, lecture and demonstration rooms and halls, class-rooms, libraries and reading or recreation rooms, gymnasia, tennis-courts, racquets and fives-court, boat-houses, athletic grounds, playing-fields, and all such other establishments, accessories, and premises as may be considered necessary or suitable for or incidental to any such institution:

(11.) To purchase, manufacture, hire, or otherwise acquire books, periodicals, stationery, scientific and other instruments and apparatus, and generally all such educational, athletic, and other supplies and equipment necessary or suitable for any such institution, and to utilize, sell, turn to account, let out on hire, or otherwise deal with or dispose of the same:

(12.) To purchase, acquire, and deal in goods, wares, merchandise, and chattels of whatsoever nature, including all kinds of stores and provisions required by teachers, students, and employees attending such institution or residing therein, and to sell, barter, or dispose of or distribute the same or any part thereof to or among the members of the Company or any persons or bodies corporate:

(13.) To enter into an agreement or arrangement with any Board of school Trustees, or any City or Municipal Council, or Provincial Department of Education, or any university or other body in charge of or concerned in any branch of public education, in the Province of British Columbia or elsewhere, whereby the Company may undertake the conduct of any part of the educational work for the time being carried on by such body of authority upon such terms as may from time to time be decided:

(14.) To enter into any arrangements with any Government or any municipal or local authority which may seem conducive to any of the Company's objects, and to carry out and comply with any such arrangements:

(15.) To establish and carry on, on the said premises or elsewhere, the business of hotel or boarding-house proprietors, or to use the said building and premises as a hospital, convalescent home, infirmary, or home for aged, incurable, or indigent persons, or for any other purpose for which the same may be adaptable:

(16.) To clear, manage, farm, cultivate, irrigate, plant, build on, or otherwise work, use or improve, and to sell, let on lease, or otherwise dispose of any land belonging to the Company or in which the Company may have an interest, and to deal in any products thereof:

(17.) To engage in farming and stock-raising in all their branches, and to buy, sell, and otherwise deal in live or dead stock and all farm products:

(18.) To carry on any other business which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with the above, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights:

(19.) To acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property, and liabilities of any person or company possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company, or carrying on any business which this Company is authorized to undertake, and as the consideration for the same to pay cash or issue any shares, stocks, debentures, or obligations of this Company:

(20.) To take or otherwise acquire and hold shares in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company:

(21.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property, rights, and liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company:

(22.) To borrow or raise or secure the payment of money in such manner as the Company shall think fit, and in particular by the issue of debentures or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, charged upon all or any of the Company's property (both present and future, including its uncalled capital), and to purchase, redeem, or pay off any such securities:

(23.) To draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, execute, and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, debentures, and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(24.) To invest, lend, and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required in such manner and upon such security as may from time to time be determined:

(25.) To purchase or otherwise acquire or advance money or any of the Company's stock, shares, or debentures on such terms and in such manner (and in particular, if necessary, subject to obtaining the sanction of the Court thereto) as the regulations of the Company and the laws of British Columbia may from time to time provide:

(26.) Generally to purchase, take on lease or in exchange, hire, or otherwise acquire any real or personal property and any rights or privileges which the Company may think necessary or convenient for the purposes of its business, and in particular any land, buildings, easements, machinery, plant, or stock-in-trade:

(27.) To advertise the Company's business or any part thereof:

(28.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with the undertaking of the Company or all or any of its property and rights, with power to accept as the consideration on any such sale or disposition shares, stock, debentures, or securities of any other company:

(29.) To distribute any of the property of the Company among its members in specie:

(30.) To remunerate any person or company for services rendered or to be rendered in placing or assisting to place, or guaranteeing the placing of, any of the shares in the Company's capital or any debentures, debenture stock, or other securities of the Company, or in or about the formation or promotion of the Company or the conduct of its business:

(31.) To do all such things as the Company may think incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them.

And it is hereby declared that each of the objects specified in the foregoing paragraphs of this clause shall, except where otherwise explained by the context, be deemed to be independent and primary, and that none of the said paragraphs shall be in anywise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph or the name of the Company.

"COMPANIES ACT."

I HEREBY CERTIFY that there have this day been registered pursuant to the "Companies Act" an office copy of an order of the Honourable Mr. Justice Gregory dated the 16th day of July, 1930, confirming wholly a special resolution of the Columbia Paper Company, Limited, for the alteration of the objects of the Company, and a copy of the memorandum of association of the Company as altered.

The Company's memorandum of association has been altered by the deletion of the following clauses:—

"To take or otherwise acquire and hold shares in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

"To distribute any of the property of the Company among the members in specie."

And by the addition of the following clauses:—

"Subject to section 144, to take or otherwise acquire and hold the shares, stock, debentures, or other securities of any company, wheresoever incorporated, having objects altogether or in part similar to those of the Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company, and to sell or reissue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same:

"To establish agencies and branches and to adopt such means of making known the products of the Company as may seem expedient, and in particular by advertising in the press, by circulars, by purchase and exhibition of works of art or interest, by publication of books and periodicals, and by granting prizes, rewards, and donations:

"To lend money to any person or company, wheresoever incorporated, or guarantee the performance of the contracts and obligations of, and the payment of the principal of or interest of, or other charges on any contract, shares, debentures, mortgages, or securities of any person or company, wheresoever incorporated, doing business with the Company, and for the object of more effectually lending assistance to such last-mentioned person or company may contract to waive all rights to which it may or might be entitled as guarantor or surety, and may contract to become as fully and effectually liable as principal debtor as such person or company, and to be placed in the position of principal debtor where it may appear likely, directly or indirectly, to effect the objects of this Company or the interest of its shareholders:

"To raise and assist in raising money for, and to aid by way of bonus, loan, promise, endorsement, guarantee of debenture or other securities, or otherwise, any company, wheresoever incorporated, with which the Company has or proposes to have business relations, and to guarantee the contracts of any such company:

"To carry on any business capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with the business of the Company, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights:

"To distribute among the shareholders of the Company, in kind, specie, or otherwise, as may be resolved, by way of dividend, bonus, or in any other manner deemed advisable, any property or assets of the Company or any proceeds of the sale or disposal of any property of the Company, and in particular any shares, bonds, debentures, debenture stock, or other securities of or in any other company belonging to this Company or which it may have power to dispose of:

"To establish and support or aid in the establishment and support of associations, institutions, funds, trusts, and conveniences calculated to benefit employees or ex-employees of the Company or its predecessors in business, or the dependents or connections of such persons, and to grant pensions and allowances, and to make payments towards insurance, and to subscribe or guarantee money for charitable or benevolent objects, or for any exhibition, or for any public, general, or useful objects."

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this first day of August, one thousand nine hundred and thirty.

[L.S.] H. G. GARRETT,
1030-au7 Registrar of Companies.
